

WALKING THROUGH NAIROBI'S HISTORY

(Part II, Northern part of CBD)

TEKWA would like to invite you for a walk through the Northern part of the CBD of Nairobi, introducing you to the development of the town after it had become the railway and administrative headquarters. We would like to show you the many historical sites that have helped to make Nairobi the metropolis it is today. In order to avoid the heavy traffic and weekday commotion, the tour will be on a Sunday morning. As we end at the Stanley Hotel, there is an option to have lunch or a snack at the famous Thorne Tree restaurant.

This tour includes: visit of National Theatre, Norfolk Hotel, University of Nairobi, Synagogue, Jeevanjee Gardens, Biashara Street, Khoja Mosque, Moi Avenue and its old buildings, McMillan Memorial Library, Jamia Mosque, Kipande House, Freedom Corner, DC's Office (Nairobi Gallery), Kenyatta Avenue and its old buildings and monuments (Galton Fenzi Memorial, World War Memorial Monuments), The Stanley Hotel.

This is a walking tour; comfortable shoes, a hat and some water are recommended.

Start:	9.30 am
End:	about 1 pm at New Stanley Hotel (possibility to have a snack)
Participants:	min. 4, max. 10
Costs:	KES 4,500/- per person/resident status; KES 5,500/- per person non-resident status. This includes all entrance fees. Please, carry your ID or Passport for proof of resident status.
Meeting point:	9.30 am in front of National Theatre where you can park your car safely.
